

DISCOVERKEYBOARD USB

KEYBOARD MUSIC-CREATION STATION

Transform your computer into a music studio!

Have you ever wanted to make music on the go but figured it would require lugging around big keyboards and cases? Now you can make music anywhere with nothing but DISCOVER KEYBOARD USB and your laptop computer. Everything you need to make music is right there in the package including the keyboard, USB cable and software. No cases, no heavy equipment, no tangles of wires, just you and your creativity unleashed wherever you go.

DISCOVER KEYBOARD USB is a 25-key piano-style keyboard. It connects plug and play to Mac and PC via USB and give you everything you need for learning, playing and performing piano. DISCOVER KEYBOARD USB comes with two apps for your computer: Acoustica Pianissimo and D'Accord Keyboard Method Lite, and you can also use it with virtually any music software for playing, learning, recording, and performing.

DISCOVER KEYBOARD USB has controls including sustain, octave, pitch bend, and more. It connects to your Mac or PC with a standard plug-and-play USB connection, and is small enough to fit in your laptop bag, messenger bag, or backpack.

Design and specifications are subject to change without notice.

Learn to play the piano and make music with DISCOVER KEYBOARD USB.
