

LP DOCK

LP-TO-iPod CONVERSION SYSTEM

Transfer your music to iPod.

LP DOCK the easiest way to get your music off your vinyl records and into the palm of your hand on your iPod. Just dock your iPod on LP DOCK and you can record your vinyl right into your iPod. It's simple. It's easy. You don't even need a computer to make it happen!

To take your music even more places, LP DOCK has a standard USB connection so you can turn your records into MP3s on your computer and record them to CD or listen on your computer. The included recording software makes it totally pain-free.

LP DOCK also has a line-level output for connecting to any home stereo so you can listen to your records at home. There's even an input so you can connect other music sources like cassette decks, and record your music to your iPod.

LP DOCK includes EZ Vinyl Converter for PC and EZ Audio Converter for Mac, which both make getting your music into iTunes a breeze. PC users can download a free version of EZ Vinyl Converter with Gracenote® MusicID technology, which automatically adds album, artist, and song information for you!

What are you waiting for? Take your classic music anywhere you go, listen in the car, at home, and more!
